CORBETT'S BACKERS BET

Speculation Become Brisk and Interest Heightens in Friday Night's Big Championship Battle Fitzsimmons Denies He Has Quit Jeffries, Saying Champion Is Already Fit.

Find graws nearer, the night on which firm Corbott and Jim Jeffries will step into the ring at Mechanics' Pavilion to the ring at Mechanics' Pavilion to the ring at Mechanics' Pavilion to the championship of the world, betting on the result grows brisk. Several wagers, amounting in all to a couple thousand dollars, were made yesterday. They were at odds of 2 to 1 on the champion, and the manner in which Corbott money showed is taken as evidence that the odds will be shorter before the fight.

Across the bay at Alameda, Jim Corbott is going about his work in the same fast manner he has been doing for months past. From Wetinesday on he will simply rest, indulging only in a

Tommy Ryan has watched Corbett at work for many days past now, but has sidestepped their proposed bout. The clever middle-weight says he does not feel equal to the occasion of boxing with Corbett, saying that he does not want him to do anything that would interfere with his usual work. He says Jim and he would only box, and that, in a measure, would only upsat Corbett extensively, particularly as the date of the bout is such a short time off.

MORNING GALLOPS OVER THE HEATHER COURSE.

Mud on Main Track Added to by Rain of Yesterday Closed It To Workouts.

(Special to The Evening World.)

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Fair, in good racing form.

Frisp weather and an agreeable atosphere faced the trainers and racers to easy exercise on "the heather," and this morning during the exercise hours. he showed no signs of lameness. The track, however, was in vile shape. J. Frank Lyman's Kentucky Rose The rain of the day before, coming breezed a mile in 2.01. on the deluges that have already fallen on it, put the main course out of business altogether, causing the gates to James McLaughlin sent Peninsular the closed, and no horses were allowed mile distance in 1.53.

This had the effect of sending all J. E. Madden sent Abdell a mile bands, including trainers, horses and 1.51 1-2. bands, including trainers, horses and clockers, over to the Horse Huven and the new course, which is fast beginning to be called "The Heather." Over there all was life and admarden. Horses pranced and jogged and galloped over the ground at about a two-minute cl.p.

There are no poies on "The Heather."

List 1-2.

Applause covered the distance in 1.55.

For Luck turned the route in 1.53.

Origen did a mile in 1.54.

W. Barret's Salora clipped off six furious in 1.22.

H. M. Ziegier's Bobadil turned five farlongs in 1.07. There are no poise on "The Heather," and those at Horse Haven are hidden by the stables, and the railords have their troubles in timing the borses. They are also at a great inconvenience, as there is not a seat to sit in or a rail to perch on while the horses are galloping.

About the first move of the morning was made when Trainer Frank Regan sent Nevermore a mile over the slush in 1.41. Rigodon did six furlongs in 1.27. Foxnall Keene's Toboggan recled off a mile in 1.44. Rigodon did six furlongs in 1.27.
